

Local Business Owner Willow Shambeck Announces her Campaign for Winter Park City Commissioner Seat 1

Winter Park, FL, November 17, 2014: Willow Shambeck announced her candidacy for Winter Park City Commissioner, Seat 1 to fill the seat of Steve Leary, who is intending to run for Mayor. Shambeck is an active member of the Winter Park community, currently holding position as chairman of the Rollins College Hamilton Holt School Community Relations Committee as well as on the Board of Advisors, block captain for Park Avenue Merchant's Association, and President/Broker of Cursor Realty Commercial, a boutique-style full service real estate company with the main office on Park Avenue.

Shambeck was also owner of Shou'ture, a former boutique on Park Avenue, as well as chairman of Park Avenue Area Association, founder of Park Avenue Fashion Week, Volunteer of the Year in 2007 awarded by the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce, alum of Leadership Winter Park Class XXI, and co-chairman of Easter Seals A Pair to Remember event. She also was named in Orlando Business Journal's '40 under 40' list in 2010.

"I'm running for City Commissioner in an effort to assist in the economic development to help create jobs, to protect parks and green spaces, to allow small businesses to thrive, nurture Winter Park's sustainability, and to plan for future growth without compromising the integrity of our great city," Shambeck said.
